We take beautiful photographs that belong to you!

Wedding Photography Packages

All wedding photography packages include an album (with 30 prints of your choice) and a DVD of all your photographs taken on the day. We grant you joint copyright so you can distribute and print the photographs without further charge from us. Most couples get in excess of 400 high resolution photographs. Wedding photographers usually charge £10 to £20 per print, whereas with your DVD, you can go to your favourite photolab and get the same print for a £ or so. So our way of working saves you a lot of expense.

Albums

There are two types of album, Deluxe and Prestige, both available with matching Parent albums, depending on the package you choose. The Deluxe album is a medium-sized album and our most popular, whilst the Prestige is a large and impressive leather bound album, imported from Spain.

Single Location Package - £450

Our famous single location package is ideal for those on a budget and includes a Deluxe album with 30 prints of your choice and a DVD of all your photographs taken on the day. Your photographer will arrive in time to photograph the guys waiting for the bride, the service, signing the register, the group photographs and all the romantic photographs you want. Second locations a pleasure.

Deluxe Package - £995

The Deluxe package includes two locations (such as the church and the reception). You get all your photographs burnt to a DVD and can distribute and print the photographs without further charge from us. You also get a Deluxe album with 30 prints of your choice, and two matching Deluxe Parent albums each with 10 prints of your choice.

Prestige Package – £1,495

The Prestige package includes two photographers and three locations (such as the bride getting ready, the church and the reception) and covers up to the first dance. You get all the photographs burnt to a DVD and can distribute and print the photographs without further charge from us. You also get a large leather bound Prestige album with 30 prints of your choice and two matching Prestige Parent albums each with 10 prints of your choice.
